President's Message

First, special thanks to Karen Hunter for serving as the installation officer.

A special thanks to Gertrude Bullock, Peggy Stricklin, and Dorothy Tolliver who attend the 96th KFBPW State Conference and worked the registration desk. Your work and time was greatly appreciated.

The July meeting will be a working and planning for the 2018-2019 program year. We need as many member as possible to attend. We have some challenges and it will help to make our club stronger.

A group picture will be taken at this meeting and asking everyone to year black and white. Get the word out to all members.

The Chair would like to challenge all members to try and bring a prospected member to the August meeting. You have one month to invite someone. We ended 2017-2018 with 29 members.

The 2018-2019 KFBPW President, Mimi Becker, is asked the locals to continue to keep up with your daily steps beginning August 1st logging them.

All information will be discussed at our July meeting.

Stay cool and have a blessed month.
