Yeehaw, Y'all!

Ladies,

I would say April showers bring May flowers but we already have so many beautiful flowers blooming due to the extra warm March weather! It's always so amazing to see the vibrant spring colors after a dreary, drab winter, isn't it?

Today is the West Region Meeting. We are hosting this year and it will be held at the First Baptist Church. I attended last year's regional meeting in Central City and it was really interesting to hear ideas from the other clubs in the area. We have a wonderful day planned and there are about 10 local members registered to attend.

Scholarship chairwoman Amy Ellis has prepared the scholarship applications and delivered them to the high school for young ladies to apply. The committee will be in the process of deciding on winners over the next few weeks. It's hard to believe that it is graduation time again. If you know anyone who would benefit from this scholarship, please encourage them to apply.

Equal Pay Day will be held this Tuesday at the Brickyard, from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m., more details on that are inside. It should be a very fun event as always, and it usually attracts a lot of attention around town.

Our next meeting will be the officer installation banquet in May when Brownie Bennett will be installed as your new president. I look forward to seeing everyone there in support of the new officers. Enjoy the spring weather and don't forget, May Day is Payday! Dues are due May 1, no later than May 15!

Marsha

Dianne talks art at the March meeting!

Lincoln Elementary art teacher Dianne Wade attended our March meeting to discuss her plans for an art camp for girls in Simpson County this June. She asked for assistance in a donation to the camp for supplies, and told us a little bit about the camp and the projects the girls do. The attending members voted to donate $100 toward supplies and another $100 to provide scholarships for girls who cannot afford the $50 registration fee. One name has been submitted however there is one scholarship open. If anyone knows of a girl who has artistic ability and might need help with paying for this one week camp, you can contact Marsha Herndon or Dianne Wade for more information.

Giggling Girls Art Camp

I recently received the following e-mail:

Marsha,

The fliers are going home today with an application. Would you like 2 applications for the scholarships BPW sponsored? I wasn't sure how you wanted to handle those. I'm ok with however you do it and am leaving 2 spaces available for those girls.

Thank you again for your generosity. These girls will have a wonderful experience.

Dianne Wade

Women of Achievement!

The Franklin Simpson Human Rights Commission recently honored Judge Janet Crocker and Katherine McCutchen for their outstanding work in the community. They were honored with a lovely Saturday evening reception held at the Blewett Bradley building and catered (deliciously) by the Rev. Donzella Lee.

Our club is so proud to call these women members, sisters, and friends!
